

Volunteer Day
@Round Table Servants Community Center

Round Table is a non-profit organization in South Boston supporting children and families before times of crisis. They are currently developing a community supported agriculture project in South Boston and the surrounding neighborhoods.

Our service learning group organized a volunteer day event to paint on the Round Table and housing project walls to create a colorful and inviting space around the gardens. Here are photos of the event and what we painted!

Thank You for Watching!